

Branch Highlights

The 39,000 square-foot library, with 25,283 sq. ft. of public space, offers an array of materials, services and programs that will delight library users of all ages. Highlights include:

Clock tower

- 46 feet tall
- Two clock faces overlooking Walton-Nicholson Road
- Illuminated at night

Reference Area

- Wide array of reference materials including financial and business information, web-based services and encyclopedias
- 32 computer terminals
- Expanded magazine selection
- Fully staffed reference desk

Meeting Room

- 2,000 sq. ft. plus octagonal-shaped room
- Accommodates up to 215 seated theatre-style and 150 at tables
- Room has a movable dividing partition to allow simultaneous meetings
- State-of-the-art audio visual and multimedia system
- Direct access to the Reading Garden

Drive-Through Options

- One drive-up slot for returning materials and a drive-through window to pick up items on hold

Study Rooms

- Two separate rooms
- 168 square feet
- Used for small study groups or tutoring
- Can be reserved

Reading Garden/Courtyard

- Access to outdoor garden/courtyard from inside library
- Offers seating, plants, flowers and fountain for serene reading environment
- Unique landscape feature including a 20 x 12 grassy area sculpted into an open book with a fountain feature, a donor recognition wall, comfortable outdoor seating and foilage of the area.

Expanded Collection Space

- Separate audio-visual area of more than 800 sq. ft. with shelving for 10,000 materials
- More than 50,000 books for adults in a 5,000 sq. ft. space
- More than 40,000 items for children
- More than 900 sq. ft. of space for teens
- Space for 200 magazines and an area for a display of new books

Computer Lab

- 500 square feet
- Separate room outfitted with 15 computers
- To be used for computer classes
- Projection screen and audio visual capabilities for class instruction
- Open to public when not in use for classes

Children's Department

- 5,100 square feet
- Separate 975 sq. ft. children's activity room used for storytime sessions and programs; seats 85
- Two family-assisted restrooms
- Large reference desk area
- More than doubles shelving capacity of current building
- Special areas designed within room for toddlers and preschoolers
- 12 computer stations especially for children